ELIGIBILITY TO TAKE THE EXAMINATION

This examination is open to each employee of MTA New York City Transit who on the first date of the practical test:

1. Is permanently (not provisionally) employed in or appears on a Preferred List (see Note, below) for the title of Maintainer's Helper – Group B and is permanently employed or has been permanently employed in such title in the Department of Buses; and
2. Is not otherwise ineligible.

This examination is not open to employees of MaBSTOA or MTA Bus Company, or to employees of any other MTA agency other than MTA New York City Transit.

(NOTE: A "Preferred List" is a civil service list which is only for certain former permanent incumbents of the eligible title who have rehiring rights.)

This examination is also open to employees who were appointed to an eligible title pursuant to New York City State Civil Service law, section 55-a, and who meet all other eligibility requirements.

You are responsible for determining whether you meet the eligibility requirements for this examination prior to submitting the Application. If you do not know if you are eligible, check with your department's Human Resources representative. You may be given the test before we verify your eligibility. If you are marked "Not Eligible," your application fee will not be refunded and you will not receive a score.

REQUIREMENTS TO BE PROMOTED

At the time of promotion, you must have completed your probationary period in the eligible title of Maintainer's Helper-Group B and you must be permanently employed in that eligible title or your name must appear on a Preferred List for that eligible title.

Driver License Requirement: At the time of promotion, you must possess either:

1. A Class B Commercial Driver License (CDL) valid in the State of New York with a passenger endorsement and no disqualifying restrictions that would preclude the performance of the duties of this title.
2. A Motor Vehicle Driver License valid in the State of New York and a Learner Permit for a Class B CDL valid in the State of New York with a passenger endorsement and no disqualifying restrictions.

If you qualify under "2" above, your promotion will be subject to the receipt of a Class B CDL valid in the State of New York with a passenger endorsement and no disqualifying restrictions at the end of a special training course in bus operation.

If you fail to successfully complete the special training course in bus operation, including the receipt of a Class B CDL valid in the State of New York with a passenger endorsement and no disqualifying restrictions, you will be terminated. If you have serious moving violations, license suspensions or an accident record you may be disqualified.

The Class B CDL, as described above, must be maintained for the duration of your employment in the title. Such license and/or Learner Permit must not include any restrictions which would preclude the performance of Bus Maintainer – Group A work.

Medical Requirement: Medical guidelines have been established for the position of Bus Maintainer – Group A. You will be examined to determine whether you can perform the essential functions of the position of Bus Maintainer – Group A. Where appropriate, a reasonable accommodation will be provided for a person with a disability to enable him or her to take the examination, and/or perform the essential functions of the job.

Drug Screening Requirement: You must pass a drug screening in order to be promoted, and if promoted, you will be subject to random drug and alcohol tests for the duration of your employment. Additionally, if you have tested positive on a drug or alcohol test or had a refusal to test during pre-employment or while employed by a Federal DOT-regulated employer during the applicable period, you must have completed the Substance Abuse Professionals (SAP) process required by federal law in order to be promoted to this safety-sensitive position.

ADMISSION LETTER

An Admission Letter will be mailed to you about 10 days before the first date of the practical skills test. If you do not receive an Admission Letter at least 4 days before the first test date, you may obtain a duplicate letter at the MTA New York City Transit Exam Information Center (as indicated above). A paper copy of the Admission Letter is your ticket for admission to the test.

Employees must keep their official mailing address up to date. Only the address on file with the MTA Business Service Center will be used to mail correspondence, including the Admission Letter.

THE TEST

You will be given a competitive practical skills test. You must achieve a score of at least 70% to pass the test. Your score on the practical skills test will determine 85% of your final score. Your seniority will determine the remaining 15%. You must pass the practical skills test to have your seniority credited. Your seniority score will be 70 plus ½ point for each three months of completed, continuous service with an agency under the jurisdiction of the Commissioner, Department of Citywide Administrative Services, in permanent competitive class titles. Your service will be credited through the first date of the practical skills test, up to a maximum of 15 years. Time served prior to a break in service of more than one year will not be credited.

Veterans' or Disabled Veterans' credit will be granted only to eligible passing candidates who request that they be applied. Veterans' or Disabled Veterans' credit should be requested at the time of application, but must be requested before the date the eligible list is established. Claims for Veterans' or Disabled Veterans' credit cannot be made once the eligible list is established.

The practical skills test will measure your ability to maintain and repair bodies, undercarriages, and associated components of buses, automobiles, and trucks, and may include: body sheeting repair, preparation, and painting; the proper use and selection of tools, machinery, and materials; fabrication and welding; reading and interpreting specifications and drawings; relevant mathematical calculations; and other related areas.

TEST ADMINISTRATION GUIDELINES

Warning: You are not permitted to enter the test site with cellular phones, smart watches, beepers, pagers, cameras, portable media players, or other electronic devices. Calculators are not permitted. Electronic devices with an alphabetic keyboard or with word processing or data recording capabilities, such as planners, organizers, etc. are prohibited. If you use any of these devices in the building at any time before, during or after the test, you may not receive your test results, your test score may be nullified, and your application fee will not be refunded.

You may not have any other person, including children, present with you while you are being processed for or taking the test and no one may wait inside the test site while you are taking the test.

Leaving: You must leave the test site once you finish the test. If you leave the test site after being fingerprinted but before finishing the test, you will not be permitted to re-enter. If you disregard this instruction and re-enter the test site, you may not receive your test results, your test score may be nullified, and your application fee will not be refunded.

Proof of Identity: You must present your MTA New York City Transit employee ID when you arrive to take the practical skills test.

THE TEST RESULTS

If you meet the eligibility requirements and pass the competitive practical skills test, your name will be placed in final score order on an eligible list and you will be given a list number. You will be notified by mail of your test results. You will be considered for promotion when your name is reached on the eligible list.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Training: Candidates promoted to Bus Maintainer – Group A will be required to complete and pass all parts of a training course in bus maintenance operations as a condition of passing probation. If you do not successfully complete this training course, you will be returned to your previous title.

SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS

Late Filing: Consult with your department's Human Resources representative to determine the procedure for filing a late Application if you meet one of the following conditions:

1. You are absent from work for at least one-half of the application period and are unable to apply for reasons such as vacation, sick leave or military duty; or
2. You become eligible after the above application period, but on or before the first date of the practical skills test.

Make-Up Test: You may apply for a make-up test if you cannot take the test on the scheduled test date for any of the following reasons:

1. Compulsory attendance before a public body;
2. On-the-job injury or illness caused by municipal employment where you are an officer or employee of the City;
3. Absence from the test within one week after the death of a spouse, domestic partner, parent, sibling, child or child of a domestic partner where you are an officer or employee of the City;
4. Absence due to ordered military duty;
5. A clear error for which MTA New York City Transit is responsible; or
6. A temporary disability, pregnancy-related, or child-birth-related condition preventing you from taking the test.

To request a make-up test, mail your request with your documentation of special circumstances to the address found in the "Correspondence" section below within 60 days of your scheduled test date or make the request within 60 days of restoration to your position after performing ordered military duty.

Special Test Accommodations: If you plan to request special testing accommodations due to disability or an alternate test date due to your religious belief, follow the instructions included with your Application and mail your request to the address found in the "Correspondence" section below no later than 30 days prior to the first scheduled test date.

CORRESPONDENCE

Change of Contact Information: It is critical that you promptly notify MTA New York City Transit of any change to your contact information (telephone number, mailing address and/or email address). You may miss important information about your exam(s) or consideration for promotion including important information that may require a response by a specified deadline, if we do not have your correct contact information.
